The ACO may, upon written request of the owner, authorize the owner to confine the animal with a chain appropriate to the animal's size, and in a manner where no person will be bitten by the quarantined animal, for a period of ten days. During such owner confinement, the animal shall be subject to examination by the ACO or his/her deputy at any time.
- (d) Impoundment at any state or city approved facility for rabies quarantine purposes shall be at the expense of the owner of the impounded animal, livestock or wildlife. In the event a harbinger of a quarantined animal cannot be identified and located within a reasonable length of time, the victim, at his/her option (or at the option of the parent or legal guardian in the case of a minor under the age of 18 year of age), may elect to have the animal examined by a veterinarian, or to have the tissue submitted for laboratory examination; and the costs so incurred shall be borne by the victim. No animal, livestock or wildlife confined for quarantine purposes under the provisions of this section shall be released to any person until all vaccinations required by state statute have been given.

(Ord. No. 01-7, 5-31-01)

Sec. 14-13. Authorization for city-wide quarantine.

In the event that the ACO or the state department of health declare that a potential outbreak of rabies is suspected and the danger to the public safety from rabid animals is reasonably imminent, the city director of public health or his/her designee, shall be authorized to issue a quarantine proclamation ordering persons owning, keeping, or harboring any animal to muzzle the same or confine it as herein provided for such time as may be specified in such quarantine proclamation. Upon the publication of such proclamation by the director, any person keeping or harboring any animal shall restrain the animal from running at-large except that such animal under the control of an adult person and on a leash, may do so only if the animal is effectively muzzled. All animals found at-large during the time specified in the proclamation by the director may be destroyed by the ACO or any law enforcement officer if said agents are unable, with reasonable effort, to apprehend such animal for impoundment.

(Ord. No. 01-7, 5-31-01)

ARTICLE IV. IMPOUNDMENT, REDEMPTION AND DISPOSITION OF ANIMALS

Sec. 14-14. Impoundment generally.

- (a) The ACO is hereby authorized to capture and impound any animal upon having probable cause to believe said animal to be in violation of any provision of this chapter or state law which authorizes or requires the animal's capture and impoundment, and in so doing, to enter upon any fenced or unfenced lot, tract or parcel of land when deemed necessary for the protection of public health, safety and welfare. As a matter of policy, the ACO shall not enter private property to capture and/or impound any animal known to belong to the owner of said property without probable cause to believe that said animal poses a threat, public nuisance or danger to property, human beings or other animals.
- (b) Additionally, it is the responsibility of the ACO to accept any animal delivered to the ACO or the facility under his/her control (while he/she or other authorized agents of the city are physically present) pursuant to the requirements of this chapter, except those animals that are voluntarily released by their owners. For an animal to be voluntarily released, the owner must sign an owner release form provided by the ACO.

ANIMALS

- (c) It shall be unlawful for any person to interfere with, or attempt to prevent, an ACO or those acting in their capacities as law enforcement agents, from capturing or impounding any animal which may be legally impounded or otherwise interfering with the ACO, his/her designees, or any law enforcement agents while carrying out their lawful duties.
- (d) Prior to the release from impound, the authorized owner must obtain an impound release form from the ACO or an official within the police department. The fee for an impoundment of animal is $50.00. Animal owners who can demonstrate a financial hardship may request a waiver of the animal impoundment fee; such requests should be directed to the Chief of Police or his designee.

(Ord. No. 01-7, 5-31-01; Ord. No. 10-06, 5-06-10)

Sec. 14-15. Duties of the ACO.

- (a) It is the duty of the ACO to capture and impound, when appropriate, wild or non-domesticated animals in response to citizen complaints of public nuisance or to control feral populations.
- (b) If, by identification tag, the owner of an impounded animal can be identified, the ACO will, as soon as practical, notify the owner either in person or by telephone of said impoundment. If the animal is locally owned within the city and telephone contact cannot be made, the ACO will leave a notice at the owner's last known and verifiable residence indicating that the animal has been impounded.
- (c) All impounded animals shall be kept for not less than eight days, unless the animal is reclaimed earlier by the rightful owner under conditions acceptable to the ACO. However, no impoundment period is required for an animal voluntarily delivered and released into the custody of the ACO by its owner.
- (d) After the expiration of any required impoundment period, the impounded animal shall be released to the animal control facility or veterinary hospital contracted by, or doing business with, the city. At that time, the animal shall be disposed of by adoption from the facility, by offering it to a local animal humane group for adoption, or by humanely destroying the animal. No record shall be kept by the ACO as to the disposition of an individual animal after release is made to the animal control facility/veterinary hospital for the purposes specified in this paragraph.

(Ord. No. 01-7, 5-31-01)

Sec. 14-16. Disposal of dead animals.

It shall be the responsibility of the owner to remove and properly dispose of a deceased animal within 24 hours of the animal's death. Proper disposal constitutes bringing such animal to a licensed veterinarian for cremation or proper burial at a pet cemetery.

(Ord. No. 01-7, 5-31-01)

Sec. 14-17. Disposal of dead animals found on public property.

ANIMALS

(Ord. No. 01-7, 5-31-01)

ARTICLE V. DANGEROUS ANIMALS

Sec. 14-18. Permit required.

No person shall knowingly sell, own, offer for sale, breed, possess, keep, buy or attempt to buy, or train a dangerous animal within the city unless the owner has received the proper permits and/or authorizations pursuant to this chapter.

(Ord. No. 01-7, 5-31-01)

Sec. 14-19. Complaints regarding dangerous animals.

- (a) Upon receipt of a written sworn notarized affidavit by any person, charging that a particular animal is dangerous, the city director of public health shall conduct an administrative hearing within ten days of the receipt of such affidavit, to determine whether such animal is, in fact, dangerous. Unless the matter is resolved by mutual agreement of all parties involved prior to the hearing, said animal shall be impounded until a final disposition is reached. Any written sworn notarized affidavit shall contain at least the following information:
- (1) Name, address and telephone number of the complainant and witnesses; and
 - (2) Date, time and location of the incident(s); and
 - (3) A complete description, to the best of the complainant's ability, of the animal including breed, color, sex, size, etc.; and
 - (4) Name, address and telephone number of the animal's owner and/or the premises where the animal is kept, if known; and
 - (5) A statement that the animal bit or attacked; and
 - (6) Any other facts that the complainant believes to be relevant to the incident.
- (b) The following will apply regarding the administrative hearing to determine whether an animal shall be declared "dangerous":
- (1) The suspect animal shall be seized by the ACO pursuant to a complaint, impounded and, if necessary, medically examined at the owner's expense if the animal caused injury to a person requiring medical treatment. An animal causing such injury shall be held at an animal control facility chosen by the ACO pending the outcome of such hearing and determination as to whether an animal is, in fact, classifiable as dangerous. Such hearing to determine if an animal is dangerous shall be conducted by the city director of public health within ten days after receipt of the complaint or seizure of the animal by the ACO.
 - (2) Notice of such hearing shall be provided by the ACO to the owner of the animal by certified return receipt mail. The complainant in the matter shall also be notified by certified return receipt mail. At such hearing, all parties shall be given the opportunity to present evidence on the issue of whether or not such animal is to be declared dangerous.

ANIMALS

- (c) Upon conclusion of a dangerous animal hearing, the city director of public health may find that the animal is not dangerous. In such cases, the animal shall be returned to the owner, provided the animal has been properly vaccinated and registered and all applicable fees are paid.
- (d) Should the animal be classified as a dangerous animal, the owner shall comply with one of the following requirements:
 - (1) Humane destruction of the dangerous animal; or
 - (2) Provide for the keeping of the animal as detailed in section 14-20 and 14-21 of this chapter.
- (e) No animal shall be declared a dangerous animal if the threat, injury or damages caused by the animal were the result of a willful trespass upon another's property; or the person injured was tormenting, provoking, abusing or assaulting the animal or its owner, or was committing or attempting to commit a crime at the time of the injury.
- (f) Findings of the city director of public health pertaining to dangerous animals may be appealed to the superior court in accordance with the provisions outlined in state law. During the pendency of such appeal, the findings of the city director of public health shall be suspended. However, the animal shall continue to be impounded at the owner's expense at the animal control facility selected by the ACO for observation and to protect the health and safety of the public until a final disposition is reached.
